

Jewish Studies Program

is pleased to present our annual

ALLAN KERBEL MEMORIAL LECTURE

ON

Messianism in An Age of Despair

Presented by

Dr. Kenneth Seeskin

Chair of Philosophy, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois

If there is a beginning of time, must there be an end? What would the end of time be like? What problems would it solve? What can we do to bring it about? This lecture will explore the theme of Messianism from a Jewish and Christian perspective.

Tuesday, October 9, 2007

7:30pm

St. Jerome's Siegfried Hall, Room 1030

290 Westmount Road North

Waterloo, Ontario

there will be a reception after the talk

EVERYONE WELCOME

FREE ADMISSION

Free Parking in Lot "A" after 7:00pm

for more information, please call (519) 888-4567 x32967